

100 Ways to Play With Your Wagon

Cut out the slips of paper along the dashed lines. Place them in a bucket or jar, and choose one when you need a creative way to play!

Do you have a favorite way to play with your wagon? Fill in your own ideas with the extra space!

1. Pretend Air Plane - pretend you are an airplane pilot as you get pulled in the wagon

9. Outdoor Nap Bed

2. Imaginary Safari - Take it on a imaginative safari tour in your backyard

10. Stuffed Animal Hauler - bring your stuffed animals around for a ride

3. Birthday Present holder

11. Pull your siblings or friends around the yard for a ride, alternate who rides & who pulls.

4. Use it as a fort in your backyard

12. Haul your water balloons to the backyard

5. Pet Carrier for around the yard rides

13. Plan a wagon relay race at home

6. Use your wagon for Bean Tag Toss

14. Go for a family walk with your wagon

7. Make your wagon "Base" in Tag

15. Keep your toys stored in your wagon

8. Rocket Ship - pretend it's a space ship that just landed in your backyard

16. Pull your siblings or friends around the yard for a ride, alternate who rides & who pulls.

17. Haul your water balloons to the backyard

27. Use it when you are playing hide & go seek

18. Plan a wagon relay race at home

28. Make your wagon a school bus for your backyard

19. Imaginary fishing boat in your backyard

29. Use your wagon in your next family picture

20. Your wagon can be the start or finish line for backyard races

30. Use it as a prop in a play or musical

21. Help parents garden by bringing back the flowers to plant

31. Pretend it's a covered wagon from an old western movie

22. Pretend your wagon becomes a Choo-Choo train and who pulls the wagon is the train conductor

32. Have your kids sit in the backyard to read a book in their wagon

23. Your wagon becomes an imaginary pirate ship that sails the backyard

33. Pretend taxi making stops throughout your backyard to pick up & drop off passengers

24. Draw "streets" with chalk on your driveway and take rides along the drawn paths

34. Keep your wagon for future grandchildren, pass it along within the family

25. Pretend you are shopping in your backyard with your wagon

35. Collect nature items around your backyard using your wagon - examine your findings with a magnifying glass and take note of your scientific observations!

26. Turn your wagon into an outdoor sandbox.

36. A place for your dolls to nap in the backyard

37. Sit back in your wagon and color in your coloring book in the backyard

47. Have a picnic in your wagon

38. Pull your kids around while catching fireflies in the backyard

48. Pretend it's the neighborhood ice cream truck

39. A carriage ride for all your princess dolls

49. Use it as the imaginary backyard command center

40. Have a puppet show with the wagon

50. Play a game with your wagon – fill up the wagon, pull it, empty it, and go back to the starting line

41. A traveling circus cart for the imaginary circus in your backyard

51. Pretend it's a big truck in the backyard that you are driving

42. Kids can sit in their wagon in the backyard and enjoy a popsicle in the warm summer

52. When riding in your wagon, make up a song about how it takes you places

43. Hold a finger puppet show in your wagon

53. Imagine you are flying into space in your wagon "rocket" while playing in the backyard

44. Sit your stuffed animals in the wagon for a "tea party" outside

54. Use your stuffed animals to create a "Zoo" and visit in your wagon

45. Pretend it is a radio station broadcast booth and put on a show in your backyard

55. Pretend it's Halloween – dress up in your favorite costume and decorate your wagon to go with it

46. Sing a song while being pulled in your wagon

56. Put your favorite books in your wagon

57. Use your wagon to carry all of your finds during an indoor scavenger hunt

58. Create a porch display with your wagon

59. Plant flowers in your wagon

60. Take your wagon on a Bear Hunt around the neighborhood

61. Have a “drive in” movie in your backyard or inside and use your wagon as your vehicle

62. Throw a parade in the backyard with your family and decorate your wagon for it

63. Have an indoor picnic and use your wagon to haul all the supplies from the kitchen

64. Use your wagon as a cooler for cold drinks while you play outside

65. Pretend your wagon is a mail truck and leave cards for your neighbors in their mailboxes

66. Use your wagon to hold all of your coloring supplies while you draw

67. Turn your wagon into a race car

68. Create an outdoor sensory bin with your wagon

69. Do a science experiment in your wagon

70. Play charades and pick prompts out of your wagon

71. Pretend your wagon is a canoe and go on an aquatic adventure in your backyard

72. Bring speakers outside and sit in your wagon for an outdoor concert

73. Turn your wagon into a table or bookshelf

74. Use your toy wagon as a centerpiece on the table

75. Fill your wagon with all of your favorite things and use it as inspiration for a painting or drawing

76. Take your wagon on a “road trip” around the house and yard and name each location after a landmark

77. Haul all of your sports equipment with your wagon

87. Create a tall tower out of plastic cups in your wagon and try to pull it around without toppling the tower

78. Make all of your favorite ballpark snacks, sit in your wagon, and watch your favorite baseball movie or an old game of your favorite team

88. Pick a color and fill up your wagon with as many things of that color you can find around the house

79. Have a contest to see who can make the most creative decorations for your wagon using supplies from around the house

89. Take your wagon camping in your backyard

80. Video chat with your grandparents from your wagon

90. Haul all of your beach gear to the backyard and play in the sprinkler

81. Use your wagon to collect rocks around the neighborhood and paint them with positive messages

91. Give your wagon a car wash in the driveway

82. Take your wagon for a ride and pretend you are on a rollercoaster

92. Bake some treats and pretend play bakery with your wagon as your store

83. Use your plastic eggs from Easter for another Easter egg hunt - use your wagon to collect the eggs

93. Use your wagon to help deliver laundry to its proper place

84. Use your wagon to deliver breakfast in bed to your mom on Mother's day

94. Collect food and clothing you'd like to donate in your wagon

85. Take your wagon on an iSpy adventure around the neighborhood

95. Pretend play going to work with your wagon as an office

86. Use your wagon to hold all of your chalk and make creations on the sidewalk

96. Turn your wagon into your ultimate superhero vehicle

97. Go “grocery shopping” in the fridge and use your wagon as a cart

104.

98. Write a story about your little red wagon

105.

99. Pretend it’s Christmas - wrap items from around the house and deliver them to family members with your wagon

106.

100. “Paint” your wagon with shaving cream

107.

101.

108.

102.

109.

103.

110.

100 Ways to Play With Your Wagon

